

How to reach Milano

Milano is well served by three international airports, with train and/or shuttle bus connection to the town

Milano Malpensa - pay attention to your terminal: T1 and T2 are not at walking distance, a shuttle connects them

Milano Linate

Milano \(Bergamo\) Orio al Serio (Ryanair)

The train station Milano Bovisa-Politecnico, that is less than 100 m far from the Conference location, is on the route of the Malpensa Express, connecting the airport Milano Malpensa to the city centre, it starts every 10'-20' and take about 40'.

Shuttle bus to the airports starting from the main train stations.

How to reach the Conference (Milano Bovisa)

Politecnico di Milano, Campus Bovisa - Via Lambruschini 4

The Conference is held in Buildings B27 and B28, just downstairs the train station Milano Bovisa-Politecnico.

The Campus extends over a large and completely refurbished area in a former industrial district in the North West part of the town, which can be easily reached by city trains starting every 5'/10' from more than one stations in the town called “Domodossola”, “Cadorna” and “Garibaldi”. The journey takes just from 3' to 10'.

Accommodation

See the list of suggested hotels on the CEPIUG website. Good hotels in the area of Bovisa are unfortunately full booked now, but it would be even better to book one in a more central zone of the town, to enjoy visiting the city centre in the spare time and to easily reach the Anniversary Party location, on a corner of the famous Piazza Duomo.

The zones we suggest to stay are in proximity of the above mentioned train stations:

- the area of Cadorna station, which is a nice zone, close to Castello Sforzesco, at walking distance to Piazza Duomo, the Anniversary Party location and at 10' journey to Bovisa
